Pioneering Mobility Hubs

Sharon Feigon
Founder and Executive Director
Shared-Use Mobility Center

October 27, 2020
Creating a Multimodal Transportation System that Works for All
SUMC’s Work

Together, the top 50 U.S. cities could save nearly 100 million tonnes of CO2 emissions every year!

MOD Learning Center Case Studies

100+ Innovative Mobility Projects
Pioneers in Mobility Hubs

- Solar powered charging stations for carshare cars
- Bicycle sharing station w regular and cargo bikes
- Access to CTA buses and trains (Metra and PACE too)
- Real time information and integrated fare media
- A place to relax and get directions
- Powers the grid off peak

Chicago Mobility Hub

![Image of Mobility Hub}

One card, three ways to go

![Image of One card, three ways to go]
Education and Research

https://sharedusemobilitycenter.org/publications/
Planning and Funding

SUMC’s work on mobility hubs

- Chicago
- Los Angeles
- Seattle
- Minneapolis
- Bay Area
- Indianapolis
- Hawaii

IndyGo, 2019-2025 Capital Plan
"Mobility Hubs are the physical manifestation of the trip planning app PLUS the opportunity to create community and a learning environment for using new travel options"

Sharon Feigon